

Rome's Creation of a Mediterranean Empire, 753 BCE-330 BCE
Part I- A Republic of Farmers, Expansion, and Failure of the Republic
Text pp. 151-157

1. List Rome and Italy's advantages, including the significance of each. Number each advantage.

Rome's advantages	Italy's advantages
	1. Middle of 3 peninsulas → bridge to N. Africa, crossroads in Mediterranean.

2. Complete the chart detailing the early gov't of Rome.

Rome and the Early Kings (pp.153-154)

- * Etruscan Immigrants:
- * Agriculture:
- * Dates: 753 BCE-507 BCE
- * Romulus:
- * Tarquinius:
- * Brutus "the Liberator":

The Roman Republic (pp. 154-155)

- * Dates: 507 BCE-31 BCE
- * Assemblies (of citizens):
- * Consuls:
- * Roman Senate:
- * Conflict of Orders:
 1. Patricians-
 2. Plebeians-
- * Results:
 - 1.
 - 2.
- * Patron-Client relationship: (look up in glossary)